{ Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary on Saturday }

Stand and make sign of cross

God, come to my assistance.

— Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

HYMN

The God whom earth and sea and sky
Adore and laud and magnify,
Whose might they own, whose praise they tell,
In Mary's body deigned to dwell.

O Mother blest! the chosen shrine
Wherein the Architect divine,
Whose hand contains the earth and sky,
Vouchsafed in hidden guise to lie:

Blest in the message Gabriel brought;
Blest in the work the Spirit wrought;
Most blest, to bring to human birth
The long desired of all the earth.

O Lord, the Virgin born, to thee Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost for ever more.

PSALMODY

Antiphon 1

Whoever humbles himself, like a little child, will be greater in the kingdom of heaven.

Psalm 131

Childlike trust in God

Learn from me, for I am gentle and humble of heart (Matthew 11:29).

O Lórd, my héart is not próud *
nor háughty my éyes.
I have not góne after things too gréat *
nor márvels beyónd me.

Trúly I have sét my sóul *
in sílence and péace.
As a chíld has rést in its mother's árms, *
even só is my sóul.

O Ísrael, hópe in the Lórd *
both nów and for éver.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon

Whoever humbles himself, like a little child, will be greater in the kingdom of heaven.

Antiphon 2

With simplicity of heart, I have joyfully offered everything to you, my God.

Psalm 132

God's promises to the house of David

The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David (Luke 1:32).

I

O Lórd, reméber Dávid *
and áll the many hárdships he endúred, the óath he swóre to the Lórd, *
his wów to the Stróng One of Jácob.

“I will not énter the hóuse where I líve *

nor gó to the béd where I rést.
I will gíve no sléep to my éyes,*
to my eyelids I will gíve no slumber till I find a pláce for the Lórd,* a dwelling for the Stróng One of Jácob.”

At Éphrathah we héard of the árkh,*
we fóund it in the pláins of Yearím.
“Let us gó to the pláce of his dwelling; *
let us gó to knéel at his fóotstool.”

Go up, Lórd, to the pláce of your rést,* yóu and the árkh of your stréngth.
Your priésts shall be clóthed with hóliness: *
your fáithful shall ríng out their jóy.
For the sáke of Dávid your sérvant *
dó not réjéct your anóinted.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,*
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now,*
and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon

With simplicity of heart, I have joyfully offered everything to you, my God.

Antiphon 3

The Lord has sworn an oath to David; his kingdom will stand for ever.

II

The Lórd swore an óath to Dávid; *
he will not go báck on his wórd;
“A són, the frúit of your bódý,*
will I sét upón your thróne.

If they kéeep my cóvenant in trúth *
and my láws that Í have táught them, their sóns álso shall rúle * on your thróne from áge to áge.”

For the Lórd has chósened Zíon; *
he has desired it fór his dwelling:
“Thís is my résting-place for éver, *
hére have I chósened to líve.

I will gréatly bléss her próduce, *
I will fill her póor with bréad.
I will clóthe her príests with salvátion * and her fáithful shall ríng out their jóy.

Thére David’s stóck will flówer: *
I will prépare a lámp for my anóinted.
I will cóver his énemies with sháme *
but on hím my crówn shall shíne.”

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon

The Lord has sworn an oath to David; his kingdom will stand for ever.

VERSE

Come, consider the works of the Lord.

— The marvels he has created on this earth.

READINGS

First reading

From the book of Sirach

44:1-2, 16a—45:5

Praise of the fathers: from Enoch to Moses

Now will I praise those godly men, our ancestors, each in his own time:
The abounding glory of the Most High’s portion,
his own part, since the days of old.

[ENOCH walked with the Lord and was taken up, that succeeding generations might learn by his example.]

NOAH, found just and perfect, renewed the race in the time of devastation.

Because of his worth there were survivors,
and with a sign to him the deluge ended;
A lasting agreement was made with him,
that never should all flesh be destroyed.

ABRAHAM, father of many peoples, kept his glory without stain:

He observed the precepts of the Most High,
and entered into an agreement with him;

In his own flesh he incised the ordinance, and when tested he was found loyal.

For this reason, God promised him with an oath that in his descendants the nations would be blessed,
That he would make him numerous as the grains of dust,
and exalt his posterity like the stars;
That he would give them an inheritance from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

And for ISAAC he renewed the same promise because of Abraham, his father.

The covenant with all his forebears was confirmed, and the blessing rested upon the head of Jacob.

God acknowledged him as the first-born, and gave him his inheritance.

He fixed the boundaries for his tribes,
and their division into twelve.

From him was to spring the man who won the favor of all:

Dear to God and men,
MOSES, whose memory is held in benediction.

God's honor devolved upon him,
and the Lord strengthened him with fearful powers;

God wrought swift miracles at his words and sustained him in the king's presence.

He gave him the commandments for his people, and revealed to him his glory.
For his trustworthiness and meekness
God selected him from all mankind;
He permitted him to hear his voice,
and led him into the cloud,
Where, face to face, he gave him the commandments,
the law of life and understanding,
That he might teach his precepts to Jacob,
his judgments and decrees to Israel.

Responsory

Deuteronomy 6:4; 7:9; 6:5

Hear, O Israel, and carefully keep what the Lord has commanded you,

— and you will know that the Lord your God is a faithful God,
true to his promises and merciful to all who love him.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

— And you will know that the Lord your God is a faithful God,
true to his promises and merciful to all who love him.

Second reading

From a sermon by Saint Lawrence Justinian, bishop

(Sermo 8, in festo Purificationis B.M.V.: Opera, 2, Venetiis 1751, 38–39)

Mary stored up all these things in her heart

While Mary contemplated all she had come to know through reading, listening and observing, she grew in faith, increased in merits, and was more illuminated by wisdom and more consumed by the fire of charity. The heavenly mysteries were opened to her, and she was filled with joy; she became fruitful by the Spirit, was being directed toward God, and watched over protectively while on earth. So remarkable are the divine graces that they elevate one from the lowest depths to the highest summit, and transform one to a greater holiness. How entirely blessed was the mind of the Virgin which, through the indwelling and guidance of the Spirit, was always and in every way open to the power of the Word of God. She was not led by her own senses, nor by her own will; thus she accomplished outwardly through her body what wisdom from within gave to her faith. It was fitting for divine Wisdom, which created itself a home in the Church, to use the intervention of the most blessed Mary in guarding the law, purifying the mind, giving an example of humility and providing a spiritual sacrifice.

Imitate her, O faithful soul. Enter into the deep recesses of your heart so that you may be purified spiritually and cleansed from your sins. God places more value on good will in all we do than on the works themselves. Therefore, whether we give ourselves to God in the work of contemplation or whether we serve the needs of our neighbor by good works, we accomplish these things because the love of Christ urges us on. The acceptable offering of the spiritual purification is accomplished not in a man-made temple but in the recesses of the heart where the Lord Jesus freely enters.

Responsory

O pure and holy virgin, how can I find words to praise your beauty?

— The highest heavens cannot contain God whom you carried in your womb.

Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

— The highest heavens cannot contain God whom you carried in your womb.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Let us pray.

All-powerful God,
we rejoice in the protection of the holy Virgin Mary.
May her prayers help to free us from all evils here on earth and lead us to eternal joy in heaven.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

one God, for ever and ever.

— Amen.

Acclamation

Let us praise the Lord.

— And give him thanks.
