

Liturgy of the Hours
LITURGY OF THE HOURS

EVENING PRAYER

Season of Easter
{ Office for the Dead }

Stand and make sign of cross

God, come to my assistance.

— Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

HYMN

O Christ, the King of wondrous pow'r, you broke the sharpened spears of death
to glorify the Father's name
and bring us honor evermore.

Assuming our infirmities,
you sought the great and bloody duel;
you crushed, victorious in your death,
the death by which the serpent reigned.

You rose triumphant from the tomb
and by your Paschal Mystery
you ever bring us life anew
who once were lost and dead in sin.

Bestow on us the life of grace,
that when as Bridegroom you return,
you find us with our lamps well trimmed,
prepared and fit for heaven's feast.

With peace and kindness, Christ our Judge, receive into your light and rest
those bound by charity and faith to the most holy Three in One.

Now bid your servants come to you,
whose souls are freed from bonds of flesh,
to marvel at the Father's reign
and sing your praise for evermore. Amen.

Antiphon

If you kept a record of our sins, Lord, who could escape condemnation?

Antiphon 3

As the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son gives life to whom he wills.

Canticle – Philippians 2:6-11

Christ, God's holy servant

Though he was in the form of God, †
Jesus did not deem equality with God * something to be grasped at.

Rather, he emptied himself † and took the form of a slave, *
being born in the likeness of men.

He was known to be of human estate, *
and it was thus that he humbled himself,
obediently accepting even death, *
death on a cross!

Because of this, *
God highly exalted him
and bestowed on him the name *
above every other name,

So that at Jesus' name *
every knee must bend
in the heavens, on the earth, *
and under the earth,
and every tongue proclaim †
to the glory of God the Father: *
JESUS CHRIST IS LORD!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, *

and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon

As the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son gives life to whom he wills.

READING

1 Corinthians 15:55-57

O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and sin gets its sting from the law. But thanks be to God who has given us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Responsory

In you, Lord, is our hope. We shall never hope in vain.

— In you, Lord, is our hope. We shall never hope in vain.

We shall dance and rejoice in your mercy.

— We shall never hope in vain.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

— In you, Lord, is our hope. We shall never hope in vain.

GOSPEL CANTICLE

Antiphon

Our crucified and risen Lord has redeemed us, alleluia.

Luke 1:46-55

The soul rejoices in the Lord

Make sign of cross

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, *
my spirit rejoices in God my Savior
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. *

From this day all generations will call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things for me, *

and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him *
in every generation.

He has shown the strength of his arm, *
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, *
and has lifted up the lowly.

He has filled the hungry with good things, *
and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of his servant Israel *
for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
the promise he made to our fathers, *
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon

Our crucified and risen Lord has redeemed us, alleluia.

INTERCESSIONS

We acknowledge Christ the Lord through whom we hope that our lowly bodies will be made like his in glory, and we say:

— Lord, you are our life and resurrection.

Christ, Son of the living God, who raised up Lazarus, your friend,
from the dead,
raise up to life and glory the dead whom you have redeemed by your precious blood.

— Lord, you are our life and resurrection.

Christ, consoler of those who mourn, you dried the tears of the family of Lazarus, of the widow's son, and the daughter of Jairus, comfort those who mourn for the dead.

— Lord, you are our life and resurrection.

Christ, Savior, destroy the reign of sin in our earthly bodies, so that just as through sin we deserved punishment, so through you we may gain eternal life.

— Lord, you are our life and resurrection.

Christ, Redeemer, look on those who have no hope because they do not know you, may they receive faith in the resurrection and in the life of the world to come.

— Lord, you are our life and resurrection.

You revealed yourself to the blind man who begged for the light of his eyes, show your face to the dead who are still deprived of your light.

— Lord, you are our life and resurrection.

When at last our earthly home is dissolved, give us a home, not of earthly making, but built of eternity in heaven.

— Lord, you are our life and resurrection.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Almighty and merciful God,
may our brother (sister) N. share the victory of Christ who loved us so much that he died and rose again to bring us new life.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

— Amen.

Dismissal

May the Lord bless us, protect us from all evil and bring us to everlasting life.

— Amen.
