{ Feast – Triumph of the Cross }

Invitatory

Stand and make sign of cross on lips with thumb

Lord, open my lips.

— And my mouth will proclaim your praise.

Psalm 95

A call to praise God

Encourage each other daily while it is still today (Hebrews 3:13).

Come, let us worship Christ the King who was lifted up on the cross for our sake.

 Come, let us worship Christ the King who was lifted up on the cross for our sake.

Come, let us sing to the Lord and shout with joy to the Rock who saves us. Let us approach him with praise and thanksgiving and sing joyful songs to the Lord.

— Come, let us worship Christ the King who was lifted up on the cross for our sake.

The Lord is God, the mighty God, the great king over all the gods. He holds in his hands the depths of the earth and the highest mountains as well. He made the sea; it belongs to him, the dry land, too, for it was formed by his hands.

— Come, let us worship Christ the King who was lifted up on the cross for our sake.

Come, then, let us bow down and worship, bending the knee before the Lord, our maker. For he is our God and we are his people, the flock he shepherds.

 Come, let us worship Christ the King who was lifted up on the cross for our sake. Today, listen to the voice of the Lord:
Do not grow stubborn, as your fathers did in the wilderness,
when at Meriba and Massah
they challenged me and provoked me,
Although they had seen all of my works.

 Come, let us worship Christ the King who was lifted up on the cross for our sake.

Forty years I endured that generation. I said, "They are a people whose hearts go astray and they do not know my ways." So I swore in my anger, "They shall not enter into my rest."

 Come, let us worship Christ the King who was lifted up on the cross for our sake.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

 Come, let us worship Christ the King who was lifted up on the cross for our sake.

Morning Prayer

HYMN

The wondrous standard of the Cross sheds light and splendor through the world, for Christ once hung up on its boughs, the Innocent redeemed us all.

This holy tree is higher still than cedars grown in Lebanon; it never bore a harmful fruit, but gave instead the prize of life.

O Christ, most loving King, we pray:

Do not refuse to be our shield but sign us with this holy Cross at ev'ry moment, ev'ry hour,

That all our voices may resound with hymns to you throughout our lives and so with faithful, loving hearts return to you the praise we owe.

To you, Lord Jesus, glory be, to Father and to Paraclete, and may you grant us all to share the lasting triumph of the Cross. Amen.

READING

Hebrews 2:9-10

We see Jesus crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death, that through God's gracious will he might taste death for the sake of all men. Indeed, it was fitting that when bringing many sons to glory God, for whom and through whom all things exist, should make their leader in the work of salvation perfect through suffering.

RESPONSORY

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

— We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

By your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

— And we bless you.

— We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

GOSPEL CANTICLE

Antiphon

We worship your cross, O Lord, and we praise and glorify your holy resurrection, for the wood of the cross has brought joy to the world.

Luke 1:68-79

The Messiah and his forerunner

Make sign of cross

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; *
he has come to his people and set them free.
He has raised up for us a mighty savior, *
born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old † that he would save us from our enemies, * from the hands of all who hate us. He promised to show mercy to our fathers * and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham: * to set us free from the hands of our enemies, free to worship him without fear, * holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High; * for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way, to give his people knowledge of salvation * by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God * the dawn from on high shall break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death,* and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, * and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon

We worship your cross, O Lord, and we praise and glorify your holy resurrection, for the wood of the cross has brought joy to the world.

Intercessions

Let us pray with confidence to Christ who endured the cross to redeem us.

— Save us through your cross, O Lord.

Son of God, you healed the people of Israel when they looked upon the bronze serpent, protect us this day from the deadly wound of sin.

— Save us through your cross, O Lord.

Son of Man, just as Moses raised up the serpent in the desert, so you were lifted up on the cross in the sight of all the nations, raise us up to share in the triumph of your cross.

— Save us through your cross, O Lord.

Only-begotten Son of the Father, you were sent into the world so that those who believe in you might not perish, grant unending life to all who long to see you face to face.

— Save us through your cross, O Lord.

Beloved Son of the Father, you were not sent to judge the world but to save it, grant faith to our brothers and sisters and bring them on the last day to the joy of heaven.

— Save us through your cross, O Lord.

Eternal Son of the Father, you came to cast fire on the earth and you longed to see its flame kindled in the hearts of all men, grant that through holiness of life we may come to share in the undying light of your glory.

— Save us through your cross, O Lord.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Concluding Prayer

God our Father, in obedience to you your only Son accepted death on the cross for the salvation of mankind. We acknowledge the mystery of the cross on earth. May we receive the gift of redemption in heaven.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

— Amen.

Dismissal

May the Lord bless us, protect us from all evil and bring us to everlasting life.

— Amen.
